

Lydia Baker

b. 1990, Norfolk, Virginia

Lives and works in Brooklyn, NY

Lydia Baker graduated with an MFA in Painting from the New York Academy of Art in 2020. Her work was recently featured in a solo viewing presentation at the London Art Fair with Wilder Gallery (London, UK) and a group exhibition at Trotter & Sholer (New York, NY). Later this year the artist will attend the Vermont Studio Center Residency. Previously, her work has been exhibited in fairs and magazines, such as Art Basel (Miami, FL) and the 158th issue of New American Paintings. She is also the recipient of numerous fellowships and awards, including the Post Graduate Chubb Fellowship from the New York Academy of Art in 2020-2021. The artist has previously presented a solo exhibition with Massey Klein Gallery, In Between, and was selected for an online feature with the gallery on David Zwirner's Platform.
